

Squadron Position Policy

WEARING THE UNIFORM GUIDELINES

SQUADRON POLICY IN ADDITION TO NATIONAL AND WING POLICIES

- Only active senior members and cadets are allowed to wear the CAP uniform CAPM 39-1
- When in uniform, all members are required to act in a professional manner, not bringing disgrace to the unit, wing, CAP or the USAF, and be properly groomed, per CAPM39-1
- Parts of the uniform cannot be worn with any civilian clothing (IE., the CAP jacket or blouse)
- Members who have terminated their membership or are inactive may not wear any CAP patch from the Unit, Wing or National activity on any BDU or Blues uniform
- Inactive or terminated members must return all uniforms and uniform items not purchased to unit supply except for ribbons, ribbon holders, T-Shirts and nametags. Those desiring to retain items must purchase them from supply
- Wearing of a flight suit by cadets is strictly prohibited except on a flight line or when flying in a CAP aircraft
- Violations of any of the above items may result in:
 - Demotion of grade
 - Suspension of membership
 - Termination of membership
 - Permanent Termination from CAP
- Active members are encouraged to wear the full uniform (BDU's or Blues only) at least once monthly to school, church, or other normal public activities as a recruiting tool. Be sure to take CAP pamphlets on these days! You may acquire them at the squadron.
- CAP members may wear the CAP uniform while visiting military installations. Members will make every effort to comply with local installation uniform policy. If policy is not known, the CAP-USAF state director or the installation's public affairs office may be contacted for guidance.
- All CAP personnel touring Washington DC, as part of a CAP activity or conducting CAP business in the metropolitan area, will wear the service uniform, civilian clothing, or the blazer and slacks or skirt combination, and will be properly groomed.
- Senior members visiting the White House, Capitol, State Department, or comparable buildings in uniform will wear the service uniform with service coat (service dress uniform) or blazer uniform. Cadets are not required to wear the service coat. In no case will BDUs, flight suits, or utility uniforms be worn.
